Homestay Handbook

Adult Programme 16+

Welcome to Burlington School

This handbook gives you important information about living in one of our homestays. It will help make your stay with Burlington School more enjoyable

This handbook has information about your accommodation. If you have any problems or questions about your accommodation, please speak to us.

Staying in a homestay is an excellent way to improve your English. Make the most of this opportunity. Don't be shy! Talk to your homestay provider and make sure you always ask questions when you don't understand something.

The way people live in London might be different from how they live in your country. You and your homestay provider should show each other respect, and try to understand each other's differences. Please think about your homestay provider, housemates and neighbours, and treat them as you would like to be treated yourself.

We hope you and your homestay provider have a wonderful experience!

Arrival

Take some time to rest, and then ask your homestay provider about the rules of the house.

Bathrooms and Toilets

You should be allowed to have a bath or shower every day. Bathrooms can be very busy in the morning so please be considerate of the amount of time you spend in there, and check when the other members of the household use the bathroom. Always leave the bathroom clean and tidy after you use it.

Bed linen, blankets & towels

Your homestay provider will give you bed sheets and towels to use during your stay. The homestay provider will wash these for you each week. If you are cold at night, ask your homestay provider for more blankets - don't be shy! Your homestay provider will be happy to help.

Changing your homestay

If you want to change your homestay you must tell the Accommodation Manager. Usually there is a four-week notice period required. However, if you have a serious problem with your homestay, we can move you immediately.

We work very hard to match students with the best homestay providers, and it is rare that a student is not happy with their placement. However, if this is the case, we will look for another homestay provider for you if there is a valid reason for the homestay change.

Valid reasons include:

- pet allergies
- · lack of adequate space and/or facilities
- · cleanliness of the house
- disagreement with the homestay family (but if there is a small problem, we will try to resolve it before taking further action)

Reasons for NOT changing a homestay family include:

- feeling homesick
- · to be placed closer to friends
- · not liking other students in the house
- · not liking the food
- too far from the school
- · family members being too old or too young

Please be aware that the months of July and August are very busy and London receives a high number of international students. Therefore, it is very difficult to find a spare bed. If you decide to change your homestay, please be patient.

Leaving your homestay

If you want to leave your homestay you must tell the Accommodation Manager. Cancellations to a homestay will receive a full refund, minus the 4 weeks' rent (or the full rent if the accommodation is booked for fewer than 4 weeks). You can use the extra balance to pay for additional classes or for new accommodation.

Cleaning

Your homestay provider should keep the house clean and tidy. They will vacuum your room and wash your bed sheets and bath towels but you must keep your room tidy.

Conversation

Talking with your homestay provider is a great way to practise your English, so don't feel uncomfortable about chatting with them. Your homestay provider will be happy to talk to you, but remember that they will sometimes be tired or want some privacy.

Culture

British climate, food and culture can be very different from what you are used to. Be patient. It may take a while to adjust. Your homestay provider will be interested in your culture - tell them about life in your country, share your experiences with them.

If you have problems adjusting to life in England, talk to a member of the school's Safeguarding and Welfare team.

Damage

If you break or damage anything in the house you must tell your homestay provider. You will have to pay to repair or replace anything you have broken.

Food

Self-Catering

If you have booked self-catering accommodation, you must: ask your homestay provider when you can use the kitchen. You may have to wait until your homestay has finished cooking their food buy your own food. Do not use your homestay provider's food, herbs and spices, cooking oil, etc be tidy. Clean up after yourself be careful not to damage your homestay provider's cooking utensils

Your homestay provider must let you: use the kitchen and utensils every day use the kitchen at reasonable times keep the food in a suitable area (please do not eat in your bedroom)

Bed & Breakfast/Half board

If you have booked half-board accommodation (breakfast and dinner) or breakfast only accommodation you must:

- tell your homestay providers if you have special dietary requirements
- be on time for meals. Do not make your homestay provider wait for you
- tell your homestay provider if you are going to miss a meal (otherwise they waste food and time cooking for you)
- you will have limited or no use of the kitchen.

If you have any allergies or dietary requirements (eg a halal or vegetarian diet), let the school know and we will inform your homestay provider. It is always good to remind your homestay provider of any intolerance or allergies you have when you arrive at your new home.

Your homestay provider must:

- provide you with meals seven days a week. Lunch is not included
- · give you a variety of different food
- eat the meals with you. Your homestay provider should not ask you to eat in your bedroom

Homestay

(Self-Catering, Bed & Breakfast, Half Board)

Homestay accommodation is an alternative option for staying in London, and gives you the chance to experience life in a British home.

Homestay providers treat the student as a full member of the household, eating together and sharing the common living areas. No more than four students stay in a homestay at any given time. Burlington School's homestay providers may be organised by the school directly or by a third-party accommodation agency.

SELF-CATERING

You will be given access to the host's kitchen to store your own food and cook your own meals (in accordance with household rules and times). For that reason, the host will not provide you with food.

Meals provided: None Use of kitchen: Full use

BED & BREAKFAST

A continental breakfast will be provided (but not served) by your host. This usually includes toast, jam, cereal, tea, coffee and fruit juice. You are not generally allowed to use the kitchen to cook or store your own food. However, some hosts permit light cooking if specifically arranged when booking.

Meals provided: Breakfast (provided, not served) Use of kitchen: None or light use

HALF BOARD

The host will provide you with breakfast (continental) and dinner. Where possible, you will usually eat dinner together with the host. You are not allowed to use the kitchen to cook, as meals are provided. Snacks are not included, but you can buy these and hosts usually can provide some storage space if requested.

Meals provided: Breakfast (provided, not served) and Evening Meal (served) Use of kitchen: No use

Heating

People do not always keep the heating on all day. This may be something new for you. You may need to wear more clothes than you are used to. If you are very cold in your homestay accommodation, please tell your homestay provider. Ask for extra blankets if you are cold at night and ask for a heater for your room if the heating is not turned on.

Keys

Your homestay provider will give you a key to the house. DO NOT LOSE IT! Some keys can be difficult and expensive to replace. If you lose it, you may have to pay to replace it. Ask your homestay provider to explain to you how to lock and unlock the house. Tell your homestay provider if you do not understand it. Some homestays have alarm systems, so it is very important that you pay attention to instructions.

Laundry

If your host has a washing machine they will either allow you to use it once a week or do your laundry for you on a weekly basis, free of charge. It is a good idea to check laundry facilities with your host soon after your arrival as some hosts do the weekly wash on a specific day each week. Hosts do not normally do ironing for you but can usually lend you an iron and ironing board.

You should offer to buy washing powder for your laundry if you are doing it yourself. If you need to use the washing machine or have your washing done more than once a week, you should ask your host if this would be possible. Some hosts may make a small charge for additional loads of laundry.

If doing your own laundry, you should ask your host where you can hang your clothes to dry. Clothes should not be dried in bedrooms or bathrooms

Payment

Do not pay your homestay provider. This is a school rule - always pay the school for your accommodation. The school takes care of the payments to the homestay providers. This rule is to protect our students: if you pay the homestay provider directly we cannot help you if you have problems with the them during your stay.

Problems

If you have any problems with the homestay during your stay, first speak to your homestay provider. Alternatively, please see the Accommodation Manager. It is very important that you tell us if you are unhappy.

Rules

Ask your homestay provider about the house rules. For example, you may need to know if:

- · you can smoke in the house
- · you can use the telephone
- · you can use the washing machine
- · you can bring your friends home
- there are any rooms in the house that you cannot go into (for example, the homestay provider's bedroom)

Find out the house rules when you arrive. Your homestay provider will be pleased that you asked about it and it will help avoid problems later on.

Extending your stay

If you want to stay longer in your homestay, you must inform the Accommodation Manager. Do not pay the homestay provider for extending your stay. You must pay in the Office.

Staying out late

You will have your own key but if you are going to be back home late please tell your homestay provider. They will worry about you if they don't know where you are. If you are aged 16 or 17 you must be back in your homestay by 22:00.

Study space

Your room should have a desk with a lamp. If it does not, then please let the school know.

Telephone

Please make sure your family and friends call you at appropriate times. Your homestay provider doesn't want to be woken up at night by late telephone calls. Never advertise your homestay provider's telephone number - for example, if you are looking for a job.

Your homestay provider might allow you to make outgoing calls. Remember that all calls - even local calls - cost money. Always ask your homestay provider before you use the telephone. you can use Skype or WhatsApp (the internet is provided throughout the school).

Television

Watching television can be a good way to improve your English. Your homestay provider should let you watch television with the rest of the family. There are written subtitles for programmes, which will help you understand more easily.

Transport

Ask your homestay provider to show you the way to the nearest bus stop or tube station. They will be happy to give you advice on the best way to travel. Make sure you leave enough time to arrive for your classes promptly. Please ask in the office about student discounts for transport in London.

Visitors

Always ask before you bring friends home. Please do not expect your homestay provider to provide accommodation for your relatives if they visit England.
