

Things to do in London

There are a lot of things to do in London - and not just the famous tourist attractions.

While you are here, try and see as much of the city as you can.

Museums

Most of the big museums in London are free to enter, and you can get discounted tickets for some of the others from Reception.

Parks

Although more than 8,000,000 people live in London, nearly half the space is green - from the Royal Parks to woods and wildlife sanctuaries, it's easy to get away from the noise and relax.

Shops

From world-famous department stores like Harrods and Fortnum and Mason, to the boutiques and designers of Carnaby Street and Camden, London has shops for everybody.

Cultures from around the world

There are people of over 270 nationalities living in London, so its a great chance to find out about the different cultures - and to try their food. Try the Arabic food on Edgware Road, curries on Brick Lane, or street food at Borough Market - there is something for every taste.

The School Social Programme

Burlington School runs a social programme, where students are taken to different places around London a few times a week. Social programme activities may include:

- A trip to the top of The Shard, the tallest building in the UK
- Trips to see West End Musicals
- Visits to museums
- Visits to Camden Lock and Camden Market
- Visits to pubs and restaurants
- We also organise trips to other cities in the UK, like Oxford and Brighton, and visits to attractions like the Harry Potter Studio Tour. These are sometimes organised by third party's.

You can get informed about our upcoming social activities in the following ways:

- The Social Programme noticeboard in the Coffee Bar
- Our Social Programme presentation every Friday at 11.15 at the Coffee Bar
- The Social Programme WhatsApp group (find information on how to join it on the Social Programme noticeboard in the Coffee Bar)

Please bear in mind that some activities are age-restricted. Many activities are free, apart from travel or food. Others may require payment.
